

Courses followed at Edx, Coursera and Udemy:

US-China relations.

The raise of China.

Chinese Politics (part 2).

Contemporary China: PRC, Taiwan and Hong Kong.

Creating Modern China (part 8).

Fall of Imperial China (part 7)

China and Communism (part 9).

Contemporary issues in world politics.

Democracy and autocracy.

Europe 500-1500.

Europe 500-1800.

World history.

Conflicts in the Middle East.

Constitutional struggles in the Muslim world.

Geopolitics, introduction.

Geopolitics in 21st century.

Geopolitics of the future.

Geopolitical analysis guide.

Global political economy.

Introduction to international relations.

Introduction to international security.

International relations theory: realism.

International relations theory: liberalism

Cyber security (1 and 2): threats, defense and network protection.

International cyber conflicts.

IBM cybersecurity: basics, network and database security.

OSINT – Open Source Intelligence

Politics and economics of international energy (and CO2)

Holy Roman empire.

Austria-Hungarian empire.

History of Ottoman empire.

World War 1 history.

Weimar and Nazi Germany.

The course structure of History and International Relations of University of Amsterdam is followed.